Arrangements Made for Mexican Envoy to Have Audience With President Poincare Which Will Take Place, After de la Barra's Visit to Rome and Poincaire's Return to Paris

de la Barra, it is understood, intends to go to Rome before present letters of credence and President Poincare, who is spending his vacation in the country, will not return until Sept. 17.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 25.—President Wilson made it plan to-day that unless there was a change in the attitude of the Hugrto government within the next 24 hours, he would carry out his intention to personally read to congress to-morrow a message outlining the policy of the United States toward Mexico. He will discuss the message to-night at the White House with the entire membership of the senate forcign relations committee.

The message is couched in very kind terms because the president feels that the world generally ought to recognize that the situation in Mexico is abnormal, being controlled by a small group of men. That circumstance, the president believes, ought not to obscure the real feeling of the United States towards Mexicans, which is one of generous friendship. The president does not wish to use words of harshness or hostility.

That foreign powers generally are exercising their good offices in Mexico. The document is longer than usually has been the case with messages from President Wilson. It is expected, to make about 4,000 words.

Great Britain's statement recently, that the recognized Huerta, are the only public manifestations of symbols of the western hemisphere was considered an infringement of the Monroe Doctrine, it was pointed out by administration officials when questioned to-day whether such participation by Buropean governments in the politics of the western hemisphere was considered an infringement of the Monroe Doctrine, it was pointed out by administration officials that the United States did not contrue an act of friendship as impairing at any time the Monroe Doctrine.

While many older persons hesitated Dorothy plunged into the water and swam to the point where the boy sank. She dived under and brought the boy to the surface. Swimming with one hand she grasped young Towey with the other and brought him to shore. She was unassisted.

The thermometer has been at 40 during the night. There were lots of new men on the range shid the total force on the targets was nearly 500. This means 780 actual entries and a balance made up of 12 Imperial endets and a number of life members. The morning opened with splendid weather and a light cross wind. The opening of the meet was a tryout of the special 157,000 carridges specially made for this match and in some cases the first five hundred yards showed poor shooting under poor conditions. The team which will be sent to camp Perry, Ohio, to represent Canada at the Palma trophy match will not be selected until towards the end of the meet. They will not be chosen by any aggregates, but a committee has been appointed who will keep tab on the work of the different riflemen during the matches here, and taking into consideration their past performance and their experience will select the men most likely to make the best showing against the American team.

FRANCE IS TOLD UF

eace Training Alone Could Compensate for Germany's 400,000 Advantage

n case of mobolization the calling out of a single contingent of reserves would ring up the infantry and artillery to war strength. The French army, or the other hand, would require the addition of four or five contingents of reserves; this would give Germany aleast two days' advantage, and for an offensive force such as the Germany this would mean a temptation such as it might not always be able to resist:

been known to state that there was a connection between the strategy and the policy of a country. In such circumstances it behoves France to be on her guard. The pacific intentions of the French republic were above suspicion, and it was just because France for the initial step in a war to he grown, that her army must be ready the results.

Since war would not be declared by France it gave the opponent the advantage of choosing his time. For this reason two and one-half years service was impossible, since the French army's time of greatest weakness must be the same as that of the German army. Otherwise the weakest moment of the French army might be the strongest of that of Germany and this would give a power prepared to take the offensive, an obvious advantage. But if the French army was organized on firm foundations, as firm as those of the enday, pause would be given to his desire for war.

General Pau's speech was received with acclamations by the Senste, and at its close he received, the congratulations of both ministers and senators.

General Pau is the most popular officer in France and it was felt by the government that his prestige and recognized breadth of view would do much to place the army reform bill in a place of security in popular estimation.

Mayo is Principal Source

Dublia, Aug. 25.—The department of agriculture and technical instruction for Ireland has prepared a report on the number and earnings of Irish migratory agricultural laborers, the number of persons engaged in farm work, and other matters of interest to agriculturists. The number of laborers who migrated in 1912, it is estimated, did not exceed 16,000. In 1907 the number was as high as 24,000.

County Mayo is the principal source of the migratory laborer, the poor-law unions of Swinford and Westport supplying the largest numbers. Information was obtained with regard to 9,217 migratory laborers in 1912. Of these 7,250 did not hold any land, 323 had holdings not exceeding five acres, and 1,644 had holdings of over five acres. Of the 7,250 who did not hold any land, 5,902 were the sons and daughters of laborers.

In 1912 migratory laborers' savings were approximately £190,000. On June 1, were approximately £190,000. The hadden is simple to the work in the laborers.

Authentic Examples of Fashion's Decrees for Fall

There are many economical women who are in the habit of having only one good suit a season.

They are economical in the correct way-not looking for cheap or showy garments, sometimes the offsprings of the correct mode. They are willing to pay a good fair price, and wishful for a suit of quality and authentic as to style. This latter used to be the one doubtful point, the one thing that prompted many an anxious woman to wait till the season was half over before daring to buy her "one-a-season" suit. All this is changed now, for the study of style and fashion demands our principal efforts, and the benefits that accrue to our patrons because of the care, the foresight and study we give to our selections in far-off Paris, London and New York are real-actual -tangible!

So that the careful woman can depend for a certainty upon the fact that the Suit, Coat or Gown she may purchase from us is an absolutely authentic example of what Fashion decrees for wear throughout the season.

One man is said to have used this windfall to elope with another woman, and cases of the head of the family treating, himself to a spree have not been rare.

ing himself to a spree have not been rare.

Questions were asked in the House of Commons with the object of having a rule adopted by which this maternity benefit will be paid only to the mothers, and some of the women's societies have taken up the matter.

The question of the etiquette of the hat in the House of Commons has again been raised by Commoner King wearing his hat in the Distinguished Strangers' gallery.

Unfortunately, before the speaker could rule on the question which was raised, Mr. King disappeared from the gallery and the affair was dropped, but old members of the house insist that Mr. King was well within his rights. A member of parliament is privileged to wear his hat anywhere within the chamber, provided only that he is seated. But if he rises from his seat or moves from his position has been called and a member wishes to raise a point of order he can do so only if he is wearing a hat. In strict parliamentary etiquette a member should always raise his hat when he is referred to by the speaker.

The subject dealt with by "Father and Son," a two-part Vitagraph feature to be presented at the Majestic theatre to-day and Tuesday possesses an unusual interest for students of human nature; It tells the story of a Russian immigrant to America who climbs the ladder of fortune and establishes a good position for himself. Intoxicated by his success he forgets the wife and child he left behind him and plunges into a whirl of social gayety. In order to contract a marriage which would advance him socially as well as in the business world, he plans to divorce his wife. Despairing at not hearing from her husband, the woman in far off Russia also starts for America and, landing in New York, starts a hopeless search for him. She and her little son finally, by a strange coincidence, obtain work in the factory, of which her husband is the head. The unexpected meeting of father and son brings the man to his senses and he realizes the wrong he is defing them. A reconciliation follows and the proposed marriage is abandoned. The united husband and wife continue the battle of life together.

(From Guide to Beauty.)

If the average woman only knew it, it is not so difficult to preserve the youthful contour and velvety smoothness of complexion. Every woman hates to see her face wrinkled or biggy, and practically every one has experimented with some sort of patent remedy in the effort either to remove such condition or ward it off.

As a matter of fact, the most effective remedy in the world is one that any woman can easily make up herself at home, in a moment's time. Let her take one ounce of pure powdered saxolite, which she can purchase at any drug store, and dissolve it in a half pint of witch hazel. Apply this refreshing solution to the face every day. The results are surprising and instantaneous. How after the vory first application a marked kaprovement is apparent. The wrinkles are less in evidence and the face has a comfortable, sons feeling of Illiness.

Traband Was Landed

Traband Was Landed

Suspicion still enshrouds the Japanese barque which put into Port Simpson a week ago Saturday and which now is in the hands of the authorities at Prince Rupert. The deeper the officials delve into the mysterious arrival of the first Japanese barque ever to come to this coast, the more they are convinced that the craft brought contraband goods or a big crowd of so-called stowns aways.

Capt. Donald, master of the G. T. P. steamer Prince George, which was in port this morning from the north, said that the craft must have had a cargo of a contraband nature or a large list of passengers and much luggage. The authorities are very suspicious and will hold the ship until her master can give a satisfactory explanation of how he happened to get into Port Simpson.

First Story Discredited.

The first story told by the cantain is practiced. Str. Prince seeren.

First Story Discredited.

The first story told by the captain is discredited by the authorities, following his application for ballast. He said that he arrived from Japan to load a part cargo of fish at an Alaska cannery and then complete on the Fraser river. He mistook Port Simpson for an Alaska port, and hoped to get orders there as to where to load. The whole story looked rather singular from the start and the customs official at Port Simpson sent to Prince Rupert to have the vessel taken there, where she is being held.

The name of the craft is in Japanese lettering and cannot be made out. She is fitted with steam auxiliary power. There is a probability that she may be seized by the Dominion government and an inquiry held. The case has not be parallel in coast shipping.

Capt. W. H. Dernier has arrived from New Brunswick to take command of the British barque Celicourn, which is now at anchor in Esquimait harbor. The windjammer will be leaving here at the end of the week to load a grain cargo at Tacoma for the United Kingdom.

Portland Twirler Takes Both Ends of Saturday's Double—Header at Local Ball Yard

Superb twirling by Mays, Portland's Selever right hander, caused the downfall of the Bees in both of Saturday's contests at the ball park, the Pippins walking away with the brace of matinee offerings and bringing their total of wins on the series to three out of seven. The first game was due more to unsteady fielding upon the part of the locals, the Portland team winning 2 to 0, when errorless ball would have sent the teams into overtime. In the second battle Victoria tooked winners until the ninth, when Nick Williams hammered the cork centre out of the locals, the fortiand team winnings and bringing their total of the locals, the portland team winnings are williams and Bancroft's base running, also the timely clouts of chemical properties with major league baseball and one of the largest week-end crowds of the year witnessed the double bill.

Crew Unable to Hit.

Victoria's heavy hitters were paralyzed before the offerings of the smiling Mays, and the latter held the Bees' fence busters to the poor total of twelve clean hits in the afternoon's affray. It was a grand day for the Portland hurler and he equalled the record set by his team-mate Caffahan, who beat Seattle in two games a week ago in the Sound city. Mays used nothing but a wide curve ball and a puzzling underhand delivery that had Victoria's heavy swatters sewed up all through the encounter. His control was something marvellous, he falling to issue a pass in the full eighteen innings. He was very effective with men on the sacks in in but two of the eighteen sessions was he scored upon. Williams showed excellent judgment in sending him in against the Bees in the second contest, for he was unbeatable.

Victoria started out strong in the nal encounter and after they had talfinal encounter and after they had tal-lied one run in the second and two in the fourth, the fans sat back to watch the Pippins fight hard to overcome that lead. Portland failed to reach the home plate until the seventh, when they shoved Bancroft across, and in the eighth Mahoney tallied. Even then the Bees' lead of one run looked good as gold, for Narveson was going along smoothly without the semblance of a break. In the ninth with one down, Callahan, batting for Coltrin, drew a

It is doubtful if the challenges can be accepted, if the New Westminster Club objects, because of the fact that the Vancouvers, are not now the recognized champions of any senior lacrosse organization, but if the Royals give their consent there will be no objections whatever from the trustees. this meeting of the two clubs depend the first division aspirations of either team. An even break will leave the Eees in a position to climb against Seattle, while should the Spokane team continue their rampaging, they will be in a fair way to finish in the first three. Lynch and his Indians arrived on the Seattle boat and the Spokane aggregation are confident that they will be able to cop quite a few games from the Bees.

Ladles' Day To-morrow.

Secretary McConnell announces that Tuesday will be Ladles' Day and he will probably send in Bert Fitchner to heave with the fair ones in attendance. Kantlehner was to go upon the slab this afternoon, and it was expected that McCorry would oppose him.

Lynch has a grand array of slab artists and will certainly use Slim Smith against the Bees this week.

Manager Delmas expects to have Zimmerman back in right field before the end of the week. Zimmy is now in Seattle, having his injured knee attended to, but he will be in shape to get back into the game before the Spokane team take their departure. His return will strengthen the Bees'

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 25.— Ray Campbell, the Seattle lightweight, won a chance at the champion of the world, Ritchie, when he won a decision over Eddie Moy, the clever scrapper from New York, in a ten-round bout at the Brighouse arena. The Campbell-Ritchie match is scheduled for September 1.

REMARKED ON THE SIDE

Even though Victoria's hopefuls did drop a brace of games on Saturday to the Colts, the locals picked up a few points on the Seattle club in the race for third place. The Tealeykums dropped five out of seven to Vancouver, while the Victoria club took four fames from Portland, so that the Bees gained two clear games on the week's baseball. They can just about get third place at this rate of progress and as the Seattle club is not showing many signs of improvement, there is every reason to believe that the Islanders will land in the first division. Vancouver strengthened her claims upon the pennant, though the team has to face the Pippins this week, and Spokane is tearing along like a house a-fire. They handed Joe McGinnity's tribe a fine trimming by taking six out of seven games and will give the Bees an argument this week. Seattle will have to take pretty nearly a clean sweep if they are to stay in third place while Tacoma appears slated for a sixth position in the league standing.

Portland's Speed and Pitching Does the Trick.

Portland's Speed and Pitching Does the Trick. Portland's Speed and Pitching Does the Trick.

Though Mays and Callahan have the unusual distinction of twirling two winning games in a single afternoon, there is no denying the fact that Nick Williams has lined up a pretty fancy bunch of twirlers for his Coits, It is the snappy fielding of the Coits, their wonderful pitching staff and speed on the bases, that is winning for the Rose City club at the present moment. Williams has no fence busters on his club, though he has some healthy stick artists, but his team is full of "pep" at all times, and with a manager who is willing to take all sorts of chances, they are in there at all times, trying to win. Victoria is a much faster team to-day than a month aso, but the locals looked slow alongside the Coits. Manager Delmas, however, is getting results from his squad and as long as the team are fighting, the fans will have no cause to complain. Only a complete breakdown of the present team or the collapse of the pitching staff can prevent the Bees from forging into a first division berth before the end of the season.

For instance, on his first arrival at York in 1799, a deputation from some Quaker settlers, high up Yonge street, waited upon him to complain of the difficulty they had had in obtaining patents for their lands. The order for these was over twelve months old.

The governor heard the story desired them to come to him again next day, sent orders to the officials complained of to appear at the same time, made a brief but rigorous investigation, fixed the blame on the registrat of the province, and gave him forty-eight hours to have the patents made out—which was done!

Prairie visitors to the city are Mr. and Mrs. S. Rutherford, Bridgeport, Sask, who are at the Dominion hotel. Mr. Rutherford says the crop in Saskatchewan this year will be a record one, and while there were weather drawbacks in one or two sections and over a limited area earlier in the summer the harvest conditions are of the best and there is every promise that the crop will be got in and marketed without difficulty. As usual the problem of help is the pressing one at the moment, but with men pouring in from the east and west it is believed that it can all be handled. Business conditions are good on the whole, he says, and the people of that province are more sanguine than ever as to the future.

Vancouver and Oak Bay Do Well in Their Games This Morning

The Eighth annual tournament of the pacific Coast Cricket Association started on four grounds in the city this morning in ideal cricket weather. Strangely, enough the two crack, Victoria elevens, Albion and Victoria, were idle, the matches started being: New Westminster vs. Nanalmo, at Beacon Hill.

Oak Bay vs. Burrard, at Jublice hospital.

Hon. Louis Coderre, secretary of state and minister of mines for Canada arrived in Victoria this afternoon with his son. He is accompanying the Geological Congress in its western trip, and arrived in company with R. W. Brock, director of the Geological Sur-

This Morning's Play.

Some excellent play weak witnessed at the various grounds this morning. Namaimo were dismissed for a comparatively small total by New Westminster, a team which was not in the competition last year, but which looks very like making good. Garrison had a morning's leather-hunting on their own greensward where N. H. Peters, Hurst and Hodgson flogged the bowling to all parts of the field and out of it; while Oak Bay did particularly well against a strong Burrard eleven University Incogs were dismissed by Cowlchan for the poor total of 76 runs, only Sparks and Paten reaching double figures.

short stay here will be a very pleasant one.

"Yes I think that the congress will be of great benefit to all concerned, and it certainly brings the geologists of the different countries in closer touch with each other."

A local reception committee, headed by Hon, William Templeman, and consisting of E. O. S. Schofield, A. Von Girsewald, W. J. Sutton and E. Jacobs (secretary of reception) and others met the boat. Immediately on arrival the party was marshalled and conducted to the waiting tally-hos by means of which they were driven round the city. They will arrive back at the Empress hotel for dinner at 7 o'clock.

Dr. R. W. Brock, who is the official leader of the party, says that everywhite. leader of the party, says that every-thing has gone off splendidly so far and without hitch, All the geologists appear to be enjoying the trip greatly.

Nanaimo vs. New Westminster.

New Westminster made an excellent debut to-day by practically disposing of the Nanaimo eleven before noon for just over a hundred runs, which on a fine wicket like Beacon Hill is none too many. Hebron and Bartlett shared the bowling honors. The former is a former club-mate of the brothers Ismay, the well-known Albion players. H. Jepson and Curry batted well for the visitors. Curry and Newberry put up a good partnership for the eighth wicket, while Hindmarch also helped the latter to score a few more.

At the University school, the Incogs had a bad time this morning before Curgenven and Bagnall, and in spite of an excellent start by Sparks and Paten, were all out before noon for 76 runs. Curgenven was in great form with the ball, and the fielding of the whole team was great. Scores:

The fine Tolmie school at Boleskin road is the best eight-room school in this district and is of substantial brick construction. It was built by Luney Brothers from the design by Capt. H. J. R. Cullin, architect of the board.

This is the largest school to be opened, but the board also added schools at Saanichton and Keating to-day, although only one room was occupied to start. At North Dairy two new rooms have been added, and the school, making three rooms in operation. At Craigflower a new room have been added, and two teachers have assumed charge. All these buildings and sites have involved an expenditure of about $100,000, of which the government has contributed all but $30,000, raised by loan on the municipality. In the last three and a half years in addition to those mentioned above there have been new schools at Cadboro Bay, Gordon Head, Cedar Hill, Royal Oak and Graiglower, or over 30 rooms, a remarkable necord. Vancouver litting.

Vancouver lost only two men this morning while knocking up over 150 runs. Peters, Hurst and especially Hodgson made very free with the howling of the Garrison, which was changed continually. Hodgson was in great form and drove cut with tremendous precision. Peters fell, after scoring close on the half century to a catch by the bowler, who snapped up a hot return. Major Mills was obliged to retire from fielding owing to an indisposition, and Bancroft substituted. Scores:

:::::: CALLS ON UNIONS TO EXPEL MILITIAMEN

OF WAR ARMAMENTS Secretary of B. C. Federation of Labor Believes Strike is Political Dodge

Whereas, the main object of the maintenance of the milita is for the purpose of breaking strikes by intimidating the strikers, and if necessary shooting the strikers into submission.

"Therefore, be it resolved, that this meeting of workers of this city call on all labor unions to expel any man from their organization who is a member or continues to be a member of the milital."

their organization who is a member or continues to be a member of the milital."

Such was the resolution carried with only one dissentient yesterday evening at a mass meeting in the Victoria theatre under the auspices of the British Federation of Labor, called to make a protest against the retention of the milital in the strike area. Christian Sivertz, president of the Federation, announced that he had not been able to secure any of the leaders in the strike zone as most of them were occupied with various engagements connected with the strike. District President Foster, to whom they had looked, had not been able to leave the scene of the strike, as he was in charge of operations. They had, therefore, secured Victor R. Midgley, the federation secretary in Vancouver, who had been in the area recently.

Mr. Sivertz complained that when he had called on Saturday and attempted to Bring a message from the district officers now lodged in the provincial fall, he had been told that Saturdays and Sundays were busy days, and that when he had told the warden that it was a Ladysmith man he wished to see, he had been immediately told that none of the strike prisoners could be seen on any account. Mr. Midgley said that the districts concerned were the only two which returned opponents of the government, elected by the working men. He dectared that the McBride machine had seen a splendid opportunity to drive sufficient men out of the community, and to intimidate their alien friends. In time, he said, they thus hoped to have a majority, and accompilish by brute force what they had falled to do by other well-known methods. In this way they would obtain control of the constituencies which they desired. On this government in the final count must rest the blame for allowing the neglect of its own regulations in the operation of the miners, and for importing armed thugs to intimidate the miners, he declared.

In spite of the scare headlines in the newspapers in the last two weeks, he continued, the miners had not killed any one, nor who refused to resign from the militia, and said that so far as the attornary-general was concerned, the Labor party in Vancouver intended to make his political life just as miserable as they could, and to end his political existence just as speedily as possible. The speaker next took up the question of an American or a Canadian organization for miners, and said that a "British" organization, such as the millitia officers had suggested as acceptable, would exclude Italians and Asiatics, in consequence of which the mine owners would quickly fill the places of the union men with these foreigners. To show the power of the United Mine Workers of America, the international organization, he said, had paid in to the strike funds between October and May about $6,000 a wsek, and from May 1, $16,500. That showed an investment of a quarter of a million dollars in Le case of the striking miners on Vancouver Island.

Whatever might be the individual opinion of the British Columbia Federation executive on the desirability

BEAR DAY IN CORN WHEAT ACTION FIRM

(By F. W. Stevenson & Co.)
Chicago, Aug. 25.—This has been a bear day in the Chicago corn trade and yet when the action in wheat is examined, it is found that for a long time during the morning prices were ½ to ½, above Saturday's close. At the outset the Liverpool cable was bearish in tone after coming fatriy bullish last week. Cash sales of wheat were over 200,000 bushels. Bottom prices in the market were made on a dip caused by break in corn.

Mayor Welcomes Delegates.

Following the completion of the above business His Worship Meyor Morley, on behalf of the city, officially welcomed the delegates to Victoria, referring to the benefits which such an organization as th A. O. F. conferred on humanity at large, and saying that in time to come governments might see the value of doing a similar work. Until such time, however, as this condition might come about, the fraternal erganizations were necessary and beneficial. In conclusion His Worship repeated the words of welcome, and wished the convention every success during its present session.

Bro. Rev. J. Thomson replied, and thanked the mayor for the cordial welcome he had given them, also expressing his admiration for the city of Victoria, and referring to the great progress of the order during the year just past.

Reports Read.

The various reports of the district officers were read during the morning, these being referred to the distribution committee, and handed to the various committees to report on during the afternoon. The remainder of the morning's work was taken up with the reading of communications, the proceedings adjourning at 12.30, and resuming again at 2 o'clock.

Call of Fire.—The fire department was called yesterday to Fowl Bay road where a grass fire had caused some little alarm. It was quickly ex-tinguished without much damage be-ing done.

Returning from Nanaimo to the city to-day to resume his practice, Dr. W. Bapty, surgeon to the $8th Regiment, stated that the health of all the soldlers under his care in the strike area had been excellent. At Nanaimo Dr. Bapty was attached to Lt.-Col. Hall's staff so that in addition to that part of the $8th Regiment which was there he had part of the 72nd Regiment, Vancouver, and other units to care for. He states that the soldlers enjoyed such good health that his work consisted mainly of perfecting the sanitary arrangements of the camp.

Formal permission for the formation

Formal permission for the formation of a Highland regiment in Victoria has been received from the department of militia and defence and recruiting for the corps will go on vigorously.

The project has been received enthusiastically by the Scotsmen of the city and district and it is believed that the Gordon Highlanders can be brought up to strength in a short time. The temporary headquarters for the new regiment are in the office of Dr. Milne at the corner of Douglas and Broughton streets.

Watch for the Big Opening Announcement

The BIG THREE of Central British Columbia

YEARS ago, when the main line of the Grand Trunk Pacific was first located through Cen-tral British Columbia, we made a most careful and systematic survey and investigation of this new territory. Aided by engineers, surveys and the immense amount of data assembled, we were able to locate the sites of the future large cities and trade centres of this wonderful new country—Fort George, Hubert and New Hazelton. Fort George, the first of these new cities promoted by us, needs no introduction—it is known throughout the civilized world. Its success has been record-breaking

-it is sure to develop into one of the big cities

Back of the development and promotion of this new city will be the same organization, the same management and the same careful and systematic development, and a like amount of liberal advertising that placed Fort George in the front rank of the new cities of Western Canada.

TALKS TO COUNCIL ON PUBLIC UTILITIES

stuck him more particularly than anything else were the remarkable development of the single tax theory, and the tendency of American municipalities towards the idea of government by commission. The former the Glasgow people had been unable to adopt on account of the natural conservatism of the British people, and the fear of its results which some appeared to dread, although "the little Welshman" had done something to copularise the idea recently—(laughter)—and the latter project he believed to so, a retrograde step. Government by commission would be an excellent hing if the people could elect some seneficent despot who would be consened solely with the welfare of the cople, but such could not readily be pund, and it was a direct attempt to smove the right of self-government town the people.

Turning to the question of public tillities, the lord provost pointed out at from the days of Baille Nicol arvie the citizens of Glasgow had always believed in their city, and its events.

PONY BITES EVERYONE

Having heard the evidence for and gainst the charge laid by Charles H. IIII, that Benjamin C. Pettingell had ruelly treated a pony by beating it mnecessarily, Magistrate Jay held that he charge had not been proven and unnecessarily, Magistrate Jay held that the charge had not been proven and dismissed it.

The case afforded a good deal of amusement to those in court, especially when the defendant told of his pony and its disposition.

As an off-set to the charge Mr. Pattingell had laid information against Mr. Hill, charging himh with using threatening language and asking that he be bound over to keep the peace. This was laughed out of court. At the first hearing Mr. Hill had told what he saw while looking over the fence between Roccabella and Mr. Pettingell's premises on the afternoon of Wednesday, when the fatter was trying to harness the pony. When the case came up again James K. Gamble was called to testify as to the language used by Mr. Pettingell when Mr. Hill spoke to him about the treatment of the pony, and threatened to report the matter to the police.

Dr. Hamilton was called by the defendant and stated that on Thursday he had examined the pony at Mr. Pettingell's request and had found no marks of any kind on it. To City Prosecutor Harrison, who showed him the whip used on the pony, Dr. Hamilton said a man could unnecessarily beat a horse with it, but unless it was a very brutal beating it would not leave a mark.

Dr. Hamilton explained that the pony was a tricky, mischlevous little animal and needed to be kept under subjection. While making an examination of it he had had to chastles it for biting him.

"I deny in toto that I beat the horse in the section of the had had to chastles it for biting him."

"I deny in toto that I beat the horse with a club; positively deny it." said the defendant when his turn came. He said he had been harnessing the pohy, which broke away from him three times, and which bit him as he was trying to get the bridle on.

In fact the pony seemed to take a delight in biting, like the dogs of the moral rhyme. It has bitten several children who tried to pet it; elderly ladies and gentlemen who have endeavored to cajole it with lumps of sugar have been driven away; one policeman who was called in to see it had his tunic torn, and another, a mounted man, was caught by the tail of the coat. Mr. Pettingell exhibited a torn shirt which he blamed on the beast.

of the coat. Mr. Pettingell exhibited a torn shirt which he blamed on the beast.

"You never thought of muzzling it?" suggested the city prosecutor.

Mr. Pettingell said that had been spoken of. He was trying to sell the animal, but no one would buy it because he was honest and told of its bad habits. It was annoying to himself to be bitten, he said, but he was finithous of gallons per day. Next the supply had been supplemented some 20 years ago, and now they proposed to go further afield for an additional supply. On a corresponding rental under company rule householders paid one shillings; to-day they paid fivepence.

Gas Was Reduced.

Undertaking the gas works, they had reduced the price per thousand feet from 5s. under company rule to is. 10d. under the corporation.

Street Railway.

His lordship next dwelt on the street car franchise, telling of the unsatisfactory and expensive service given in the company days, and how it had been improved, cheapened and extended aince the corporation had taken it over in 1894. They carried now a million persons daily, under a system of giving a low enough rate to encourage clerks and factory hands to room and the case had not been proven and with Mr. Hill for laying the information, he added.

The other case was then heard and dismissed also.
